This Morning: Matthew 2:13-23

Jesus' infancy was not all goodness and light. If there were cherubs hovering over his cradle, they never made themselves known. His parents were political refugees, and his own life was in danger before he was old enough to walk.

What sort of world is this for a would-be Messiah to grow up in?

As part of this morning's service, we will be taking part in a service of recommitment and baptismal remembrance organized around the words of the Wesley Covenant Prayer. Everyone present (regardless of membership or doctrinal tradition) is invited to take part in this time of worship and offer up this sincere prayer.

Our Mission

After His resurrection, Jesus gave his disciples this mission:

"...go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age." (Mt 28:19-20)

Our purpose is to "grow disciples who make a difference."
