Current Series: Genesis: Starting Over

This series walks through the creation, fall, and redemption narrative of Genesis to see how God "started over" when creation went awry. Lessons from this series will help us understand the journey through life that God calls us on, especially when we need a new beginning with Jesus.

Today: Genesis 11:1-9

The Tower of Babel story stands at the narrative climax of a section of Genesis which the author calls "The Generations of Noah's Sons" The story has the charm of a children's tale, much in the vein of Rudyard Kipling's "Just So Stories," and relates to us how humans came to speak so many different languages. How does this story fit into the overall plot and message of the book of Genesis?

Hymns:
#374 "Standing on the Promises"
#569 "We've a Story to Tell to the Nations"

Our Mission

After His resurrection, Jesus gave his disciples this mission:
"...go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age."
(Mt 28:19-20)

Our purpose is to "grow disciples who make a difference."
